- (2) Subject to the provisions of Section 63, the Company in General Meeting may also, from time to time, by Ordinary Resolution capitalise the undistributed profits standing to the credit of the Company's Free Reserves or Securities Premium Account and apply the same in paying up new equity shares in the share capital of the Company and appropriate the same as capital and not as income and allot and distribute as fully paid-up bonus shares to and amongst the persons registered in the Register of Members as the holders of equity shares of the Company on such date and in such proportion as may be decided by the Board of Directors.

23. Instalment of shares to be duly paid

If by the conditions of any allotment of any shares the whole or any part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being and from time to time shall be the registered holder of the shares or his legal representatives and shall for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be payable on the date fixed for payment and in the case of non-payment, the provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses of forfeiture and the like and all the other relevant provisions of the Articles shall apply as if such instalments were a call duly made notified as hereby provided.

24. The Board may issue shares as fully paid-up in consideration of cash

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Board may allot and issue shares in the Capital of the Company for consideration other than in cash as payment of any property sold or transferred or for services rendered to the Company in the conduct of its business or in satisfaction of any shares, which may be so issued shall be deemed to be fully paid-up or partly paid-up shares.

25. Acceptance of shares

Any application signed by or on behalf of an applicant for shares in the Company followed by an allotment of any share therein, shall be an acceptance of shares within the meaning of these Articles and every person who thus or otherwise accepts any shares and whose name is therefore placed on the register shall, for the purpose of this Article, be a Member.

26. Deposit and Call to be a debt payable

The money, if any, which the Board of Directors shall on the allotment of any shares being made by them, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by them, shall immediately on the insertion of the name of the allottee in the Register of Members as the name of the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee thereof and shall be paid by him accordingly.

27. Liability of Members

Every Member or his heirs, executors or administrators to the extent of his assets which come to their hands shall be liable to pay of the Company the portion of the capital represented by his shares or shares which may, for the time being remain unpaid thereon in such amount at such time or times and in such manner as the Board of Directors shall from time to time, in accordance with the Company's requisitions, require or fix for the payment thereof.

28. Share Certificate or Certificate of shares (where shares are not in demat form).-

- (1) Every Member or allottees of shares shall be entitled, with or without payment, within two (2) months after the allotment of shares and within one month after the application for the registration of transfer of any shares, the certificate in respect of such shares, unless the conditions of issue of shares otherwise provide.

Every Member or allottees of shares shall be entitled, with or without payment, to receive one share certificate specifying the name of the person in whose favour it is issued, the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon. Such certificate shall be issued only in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Board and on surrender to the Company of its letter of allotment or its fractional coupons of requisite value, save in case of issues against letters of acceptance or of renunciation or in case of issue of bonus shares. Every such certificate shall be issued under the seal of the Company, which shall be affixed in the presence of two Directors or persons acting on behalf of the Directors under a duly registered power of attorney and the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Board for the purpose, and two Directors or their Attorneys and the Secretary or other person shall sign the share certificate, provided that if the composition of the Board permits of it, at least one of the aforesaid two Directors shall be a person other than a Managing or whole time Director. Particulars of every share certificate issued shall be entered in the Register of Members against the name of the person to whom it has been issued, indicating the date of issue, provided however that no share certificate(s) shall be issued for shares held by a Depository.

- (2) Any two or more joint allottees of a share shall, for the purpose of this Article, be treated as a single Member, and the certificate of any share, which may be the subject of joint ownership, may be delivered to anyone of such joint owners on behalf of all of them. For any further certificate the Board shall be entitled, but shall not be bound, to prescribe a charge not exceeding Rs.50/-. The Company shall comply with the provisions of Section 56 of the Act.

A Director may sign a share certificate by affixing his signature thereon by means of any machine, equipment or other mechanical means, such as engraving in metal or lithography, but not by means of a rubber stamp, provided that the Director shall be responsible for the safe custody of such machine, equipment or other material used for the purpose.

- (3) The Company shall not be bound to register more than 3 persons as the joint holders of any share except in the case of executors or trustees of a deceased Member and in respect of a share held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not issue more than one certificate and the delivery of a certificate for a share to any one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
- (4) Particulars of every share certificate issued shall be entered in the Register of Members against the name of the person to whom it has been issued indicating the date of issue.
- (5) The provisions stated above shall not be applicable to dematerialised Shares and shares held in fungible form with a Depository.

29. Nomination

1. Every holder of securities of a company may, at any time, nominate, in the prescribed manner, any person to whom his securities shall vest in the event of his death. A Member may revoke or vary his or her nomination, at any time, by notifying the Company to that effect.
2. Where the securities of a company are held by more than one person jointly, the joint holders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner, any person to whom all the rights in the securities shall vest in the event of death of all the joint holders.
3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of the securities of a company, where a nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any person the right to vest the securities of the company, the nominee shall, on the death of the holder of securities or, as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders, become entitled to all the rights in the securities, of the holder or, as the case may be, of all the joint holders, in relation to such securities, to the exclusion of all other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner.
4. Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the securities, making the nomination to appoint, in the prescribed manner, any person to become entitled to the securities of the company, in the event of the death of the nominee during his minority.

30. Option of Nominee

A nominee upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided elect, either:

- (a) to register himself as holder of the share or debenture, as the case may be; or
- (b) to make such transfer of the shares and /or debentures, as the deceased shareholder or debenture holder, as the case may be, could have made.
- (c) If the nominee elects to be registered as holder of the shares or debentures, himself, as the case may be, he shall deliver or send to the Company, a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with death certificate of the deceased shareholder or debenture holder, as the case may be.
- (d) a nominee shall be entitled to the share, dividend/interest and other advantages to which he would be entitled, if he were the registered holder of the shares or debentures, provided that he shall not, before being registered as a Member, be entitled to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meeting of the Company.

Provided further that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the shares or debentures and if the notice is not complied within ninety (90) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the shares or debentures, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

31. Renewal of Shares Certificate

- (a) No Certificate of any share or shares shall be issued either in exchange for those which are sub-divided or consolidated or in replacement of those which are defaced, torn or old, decrepit, worn out or where the pages on the reverse for recording transfer have been duly utilized unless the certificate in lieu of which it is issued is surrendered to the Company.

- (b) When a new share certificate has been issued in pursuance of sub-article (a) of this Article, it shall state on the face of it and the stub or counterfoil to the effect that it is "issued in lieu of share certificate No. And sub-divided/ replaced/on consolidation of shares".
- (c) If a share certificate is lost or destroyed, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued only with the prior consent of the Board or its duly constituted Committee and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as to the payment of out-of- pocket expenses incurred by the Company in investigating evidence, as the Board thinks fit.
- (d) When a new share certificate has been issued in pursuance of sub-article (c) of this Article, it shall state on the face of it and against the stub or counterfoil to the effect that it is "duplicate issued in lieu of share certificate No." The word "Duplicate" shall be stamped or punched in bold letters across the face of the share certificate.
- (e) Where a new share certificate has been issued in pursuance of sub-article (a) or sub-article (c) of this Article, particulars of every such share certificate shall be entered in a Register of Renewal and Duplicate Certificates indicating against the name of the persons to whom the certificate is issued, the number and date of issue of the share certificate in lieu of which the new certificate is issued, and the necessary changes indicated in the Register of Members by suitable cross reference in the "Remarks" Column.
- (f) All blank forms to be issued for issue of share certificates shall be printed and the printing shall be done only on the authority of a resolution of the Board. The blank forms shall be consecutively machine numbered and the forms and the blocks, engravings, facsimiles and hues relating to the printing of such forms shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary or of such other person as the Board may appoint for the purpose and the Secretary or the other person aforesaid shall be responsible for rendering an account of these forms to the Board.
- (g) The Managing Director of the Company for the time being or, if the Company has no Managing Director, every Director of the Company shall be responsible for the maintenance, preservation and safe custody of all books and documents relating to the issue of share certificates except the blank forms of shares certificates referred to in Sub-Article (f).
- (h) Every Certificate under this Article shall be issued without payment of fees if the Directors so decide or on payment of such fees (not exceeding Rs. 50/- for each certificate) as the Directors shall prescribe.

JOINT HOLDER

32. New certificates to be granted on delivery of the old certificates

New certificates shall not be granted under the provisions of the last preceding Article except upon delivery of the worn out or defaced or used up certificate for the purpose of cancellation and upon proof of destruction or loss and upon such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses incurred by the Company in investigating evidence as the Board of Directors may think fit in the case of any certificate having been destroyed, lost or defaced beyond identification.

33. The first named of joint holders deemed to be sole holder

If any share stands in the name of two or more persons, the person first named in the Register shall, as regards receipt of dividends or bonus or service of notice and all or any other matter connected with the Company except voting at meeting and the transfer of the shares, be deemed the sole holder thereof but the joint holders of a share shall severally as well as jointly be liable for the payment of all incidents thereof according to the Company's regulations.

34. Company not bound to recognize any interest in share other than of registered holder

Except as ordered by a Court of Competent jurisdiction or save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall not be bound to recognize, even when having notice thereof, any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or (except only as if by these Articles otherwise expressly provided) any right in respect of a share other than an absolute right thereto, in accordance with these Articles, of the person from time to time registered as holder thereof but the Board shall be at liberty at their sole discretion to register any share in the joint names of any two or more persons (but not exceeding 3 persons) except in the case of requests received from executors or trustees of a deceased shareholder.

35. Funds of Company not to be applied in purchase of shares of the Company

None of the funds of the Company shall be applied in the purchase of any shares of the Company, and it shall not give any financial assistance for or in connection with the purchase or subscription of any shares in the Company or in its holding Company save as provided by Section 67 of the Act.

36. Buy Back of Equity Shares

Subject to and in full compliance of the requirements of Section 68, 69 and 70 of the Act and any Rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the Central Government, the Securities and Exchange Board of India {SEBI} or any other appropriate authority in this regard, the Company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities (hereinafter referred to as buy-back) out of—

- (a) its Free Reserves;
- (b) the securities premium account; or
- (c) the proceeds of the issue of any shares or other specified securities:

Provided that no buy-back of any kind of shares or other specified securities shall be made out of the proceeds of an earlier issue of the same kind of shares or same kind of other specified securities.

UNDERWRITING AND BROKERAGE

37. Commission may be paid

Subject to the provisions of Section 40 of the Act, the Company may at any time, pay a commission to any person in connection with the subscription or procurement of subscription to its securities, whether absolute or conditional for any securities in the Company, or procuring, or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolute or conditional) for any securities in the Company, but so that the commission shall not exceed, in the case of shares, 5% (five per cent) of the price at which the shares are issued and in the case of debentures and other securities, two and a half per cent of the price at which the debentures are issued, or such higher rate or rates as may be permissible under any statutory provision for the time being in force. Such commission may be satisfied by payment of cash or by allotment of fully or partly paid securities or partly in one way and partly in the other.

38. Brokerage

The Company may, on any issue of shares or debentures or on deposits, pay such brokerage as may be reasonable and lawful.

DEBENTURES

39. Debentures with voting rights not to be issued

The Company may issue debentures with an option to convert such debentures into shares, either wholly or partly at the time of redemption. Any issue of debentures by the Company shall be in terms of the provisions of Section 71 of the Act and the Rules framed thereunder.

CALLS

40. Directors may make call

Subject to the provisions of Section 49 of the Act, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, by a Resolution passed at a meeting of a Board (and not by resolution by circulation) make such calls as it think fit upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, held by them respectively and not being conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed time provided that no calls shall exceed one fourth of the nominal value of the shares or be payable at less than one month from the date of payment of the last preceding call. A call may be made payable by instalments. A call may be postponed or revoked as the Board may determine.

Whenever any calls for further share capital are made on shares, such calls shall be made on a uniform basis on all shares falling under the same class. For the purposes of this Article shares of the same nominal value of which different amounts have been paid up shall not be deemed to fall under the same class. A company may accept from any member the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him even if no part has been called. A member of the company limited by shares shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the amount paid by him until that amount has been called up.

41. Notice of calls

Not less than fourteen (14) days' notice in writing of any calls shall be given by the Company specifying the time and place of payment and the person or persons to whom such calls shall be paid.

42. When call deemed to have been made

A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing such call was passed at a meeting of the Board of Directors and may be made payable by the Members on such date or at the discretion of the Directors on such subsequent date as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

43. Directors may extend time

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call, and may extend such time to call on any of Members the Board of Directors may deem fairly entitled to such extension, but no Member shall be entitled to such extension as of right except as a matter of grace and favour.

44. Amount payable at fixed time or by instalments to be treated as calls

If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed time (whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium) every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice has been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall apply to such amount or instalment accordingly.

45. When interest on call or instalment payable

If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being or allottee of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest on the same at such rate not exceeding ten (10%) percent per annum as Directors shall fix from the day appointed for the payment thereof up to the time of actual payment but the Director may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

46. Evidence in action by Company against share holders

On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Member or his legal representative for the recovery of any moneys claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Members in respect of whose shares the money is sought to be recovered and entered on the Register of Members as the holder or as one of the holders at or subsequent to the date at which the money sought to be recovered is alleged to have become due on the shares in respect of which the money is sought to be recovered that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book and the notice of such call was duly given to the Member or his legal representatives sued in pursuance of these Articles and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of Directors who made such call, not that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made not that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted or any other matter whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

47. Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest

The Board of Directors may, if it thinks fit, agree to and receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the amount due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the moneys so paid up in advance or so much thereof, from time to time and at any time thereafter as exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon and in respect of its shares on accounts of which such advances are made, the Board of Directors may pay or allow interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct, 12% (Twelve percent) per annum as the member paying the sum in advance and the Board of Directors agree upon.

The Board of Directors may agree to repay at any time any amount so advanced or may at any time repay the same upon giving to such members three months' notice in writing. Money so paid in advance of the amount of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profit or dividend. No member paying any such sum in advance shall be entitled to voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would but for such payment become presently payable

LIEN

48. Company to have lien on shares

The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all shares (other than fully paid up shares registered in the name of each Member whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for all moneys (whether presently payable or not), called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares or called upon by law to pay in respect of such shares of the Members or deceased Member and no equitable interests in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article is to have full legal effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends and interest rights from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of Company's lien, if any, on such shares. The Directors may at any time declare any share wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, the Company shall have lien on fully paid shares and such lien shall extend only in respect of payment of excess dividend or interest or any sums owing to the Company by a Member.

49. As to enforcing lien by sale

For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as it shall think fit, and for that purpose may cause to be issued a duplicate certificate in respect of such share and may authorise one of their Member or appoint any officer or Agent to execute a transfer thereof on behalf of and in the name of such Member.

No sale shall be made until such period, as may be stipulated by the Board from time to time, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member or his legal representatives and default shall have been made by him or them in payment, fulfilment, or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for fourteen (14) days after such notice.

50. Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any such sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards satisfaction of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable; and the residue, if any, after adjusting for costs, expenses, unpaid calls and accrued interest, if any, incurred at that date of the sale, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited or to his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable existed on the shares before the sale.

51. Outsiders lien not to affect Company's lien

The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or by statute required) be bound to recognise equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such shares on the part of any other person. The Company's lien shall prevail notwithstanding that it has received notice of any such claims.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

52. If money payable on share not paid notice to be given

If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or any instalment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same or any such extension thereof, the Board of Directors may, at any time thereafter, during such time as the call for instalment remains unpaid, give notice requiring him to pay so much of call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses (legal or otherwise) that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

53. Sum payable on allotment to be deemed a call

For the purposes of the provisions of these presents relating to forfeiture of shares, the sum payable upon allotment in respect of a share shall be deemed to be a call payable upon such share on the day of allotment.

54. Form of Notice

The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or instalment and such interest thereon at such rate as the Directors shall determine from the day on which such call or instalment ought to have been paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of the non- payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

55. In default of payment shares to be forfeited

If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, every or any share in respect of which such notice has been given, may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interests and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board of Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or any other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

56. Notice of forfeiture to a Member

When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the Member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make any such entry as aforesaid.

57. Forfeited share to be the property of the Company and may be sold etc.

Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed off, either to the original holder or to any other person upon, such terms and in such manner as the Board of Directors shall think fit.

58. Member still liable to pay money owing at the time of forfeiture and interest

Any Member whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company, on demand all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon from the time of the forfeiture until payment, at such rate not exceeding eighteen per cent per annum as the Board of Directors may determine and the Board of Directors may enforce the payment of such moneys or any part thereof, if it thinks fit, but shall not be under any obligation to do so.

59. Effect of forfeiture

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction, at the time of the forfeiture, of all interest in and all claims and demand against the Company, in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

60. Power to annul forfeiture

The Board of Directors may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed off, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as it thinks fit.

61. Declaration of forfeiture

A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, the Managing Director or the Manager or the Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited in accordance with these Articles, on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares.

62. Provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture to apply in case of non-payment of any sum

The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any such which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of a share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

63. Validity of sale under Articles 50 and Article 58

Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register of Members in respect of the shares sold, and the Purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register of Members in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

186. Minutes to be evidence of the proceedings

The minutes of proceedings of every General Meeting and of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board or of every committee kept in accordance with the provisions of Section 118 of the Act shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded therein.

187. Presumption

Where the minutes of the proceedings of any General Meeting of the Company or of any meeting of the Board or of a Committee of Directors have been kept in accordance with the provisions of Section 118 of the Act, until the contrary is proved, the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly called and held, all proceedings thereat to have been duly taken place and in particular all appointments of Directors or Liquidators made at the meeting shall be deemed to be valid.

THE SECRETARY

188. Secretary

The Directors shall appoint a Whole time Secretary of the Company possessing the prescribed qualification for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

The main functions of the Secretary shall be the responsibility for maintaining Records and Registers required to be kept under the Act and these Articles, making the necessary returns to the Registrar of Companies under the Act and these Articles and for getting the necessary documents registered with the registrar and for carrying out all other administrative and ministerial acts, duties and functions which a Secretary of a Company is normally supposed to carry out, such as giving the necessary notices to the Members, preparing the agenda of meetings, issuing notices to Directors, preparing minutes of meeting of Members and of Directors and of any Committee of Directors and maintaining minute books and other statutory documents, and he shall carry out and discharge such other functions and duties as the Directors or the Managing Director may from time to time require him to do so.

THE SEAL

189. The Seal, its custody and use

- (a) The Board of Directors shall provide a Common Seal for the purpose of the Company and shall have power from time to time to destroy the same and substitute a new seal in lieu thereof and the Board shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal for the time being, under such regulations as the Board may prescribe.
- (b) The Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Board of Directors or a Committee of the Board previously given and in the presence of at least two Directors of the Company or at least one Director and Secretary or any other person duly authorised by the Board, both of whom shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed.

Provided further that the certificates of shares or debentures shall be sealed in the manner and in conformity with the provisions of the Companies (Issue of Share and Debenture) Rules, 2014.

DIVIDEND

190. Dividend

The Company in General Meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

- 1) Subject to the provisions of Section 123, the Board may from time to time pay to the Members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the company.
- 2) The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalizing dividends; and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the company) as the Board may, from time to time, think fit.
- 3) The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary not to divide, without setting them aside as a reserve.
- 4) Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but if and so long as nothing is paid upon any of the shares in the company, dividends may be declared and paid according to the amounts of the shares.

- 5) No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this regulation as paid on the share.
- 6) All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
- 7) The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.
- 8) Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the Register of Members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
- 9) Any one of two or more joint holders of a share may give effective receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of such share.
- 10) Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the persons entitled to share therein in the manner mentioned in the Act.
- 11) No dividend shall bear interest against the company.

191. Debts may be deducted

The Directors may retain any dividends on which the Company has a lien and may apply the same in or towards the satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

192. Company may retain dividends

The Board of Directors may retain the dividend payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the transmission Article entitled to become a Member or which any person under that Article is entitled to transfer until such person shall become a Member or shall duly transfer the same.

193. Capital paid up in advance at interest not to earn dividend

Where the capital is paid in advance of the calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to dividend or to participate in profits.

194. Dividends in proportion to amount paid up

All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid but if any share is issued on terms, providing that it shall rank for dividends as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

195. No Member to receive dividend whilst indebted to the Company

No Member shall be entitled to receive payment of any interest or dividend or bonus in respect of his share or shares, whilst any money may be due or owing from him to the Company in respect of such share or shares (or otherwise however either alone or jointly with any other person or persons) and the Board of Directors may deduct from the interest or dividend to any Member, all such sums of money so due from him to the Company.

196. Effect of Transfer of shares

A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared therein before the registration of the transfer.

197. Dividend to joint holders

Any one of several persons who are registered as joint holders of any share may give effectual receipts for all dividends or bonus and payments on account of dividends in respect of such shares.

198. Dividend how remitted

The Company shall not be liable or responsible for any cheque or warrant or pay slip or receipt lost in transit or for any dividend lost to the Member or person entitled thereto by forged endorsement of any cheque or warrant or forged signature on any pay slip or receipt or the fraudulent recovery of the dividend by any other means.

199. Dividend Reserves

The Directors may, before recommending or declaring any dividend set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors be applicable for meeting contingencies or for any other purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and pending such application may, at the like discretion either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments in such manner or as may be permitted (other than shares of the Company) as the Directors may from time to time think fit.

200. Dividend to be paid within thirty days

The Company shall pay the dividend or send the warrant in respect thereof to shareholders entitled to the payment of dividend, within thirty (30) days from the date of the declaration unless:

- (a) Where the dividend could not be paid by reason of the operation of any law.
- (b) Where a shareholder has given directions regarding the payment of the dividend and those directions cannot be complied with.
- (c) Where there is a dispute regarding the right to receive the dividend.
- (d) Where the dividend has been lawfully adjusted by the Company against any sum due to it from shareholder; or
- (e) Where for any other reason, the failure to pay the dividend or to post the warrant within the period aforesaid was not due to any default on the part of the Company.

201. Unclaimed dividend

No unpaid/unclaimed dividend shall be forfeited by the Board and the Directors shall comply with the provisions of Section 124 of the Companies Act, 2013, as regard unclaimed dividends.

202. Set-off of call against dividend

Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may on the recommendation of the Directors make a call on the Members of such amount as the meeting fixes but so that the call on each Member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend and the dividend may, if so arranged between the Company and the Members, be set off against the calls.

203. Dividends in cash

No dividend shall be payable except in cash, provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit the capitalisation of the profits or reserves of the Company for the purpose of issuing duly paid up bonus shares or paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on any shares held by Members of the Company.

204. Dividend right shares and bonus shares to be held in abeyance

Where any instrument of transfer of shares has been delivered to any company for registration and the transfer of such shares has not been registered by the Company, it shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act :

- (a) Transfer the dividend in relation to such shares to the special account referred to in Section 124 unless the Company is authorised by the registered holder of such share in writing to pay such dividend to the transferee specified in such instrument of transfer; and
- (b) Keep in abeyance in relation to such shares any offer of right shares under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 62 and any issue of fully paid-up bonus shares in pursuance of Section 63.

CAPITALISATION

205. Capitalization

- (1) The Company, in General Meeting, may resolve that any moneys, investments or other assets forming part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund, or any Capital Redemption Reserve Account, or in the hands of the Company and available for dividend or representing premium received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the Share Premium Account be capitalized and distributed amongst such of the shareholders as would be entitled to receive the same, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on the footing that they become entitled thereto as capital and that all or any part of such capitalized fund be applied on behalf of such shareholders in paying up in full either at par or at such premium as the resolution may provide, any unissued shares or debentures of the Company which shall be distributed accordingly or in or towards payment of the uncalled liability on any issued shares or debentures and that such distribution or payment shall be accepted by such shareholders in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalized sum, provided that a Share Premium Account and a Capital Redemption Reserve Account may, for the purposes of this Article only be applied in the paying of any unissued shares to be issued to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.

- (2) A General Meeting may resolve that any surplus moneys arising from the realization of any capital assets of the Company, or in investments representing the same, or any other undistributed profit of the Company not subject to charge for income tax be distributed among the Members on the footing that they receive the same as capital.
- (3) For the purpose of giving effect to any resolution under the preceding paragraphs of this Article, the Board may settle any difficulty which may arise in regard to the distribution as it thinks expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates, and may fix the value for distribution of any specific assets, and may determine that such cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed or that fraction of less value than Rs. 10/- may be disregarded in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such cash or specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund as may seem expedient to the Board. Where requisite a proper contract shall be delivered to the Registrar for registration in accordance with Section 39 of the Act, and the Board may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalized fund, and such appointment shall be effective.

206. Fractional certificates

- (1) Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall
 - (a) make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares and
 - (b) generally, do all acts and things required to give effect thereto
- (2) The Board shall have full power:
 - (a) to make such provision, by the issue of fractional cash certificate or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, in the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions, also
 - (b) to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively credited as fully paid up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or (as the case may require) for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereof of either respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares.
- (3) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.
- (4) That for the purpose of giving effect to any resolution, under the preceding paragraph of this Article, the Directors may give such directions as may be necessary and settle any question of difficulties that may arise in regard to any issue including distribution of new equity shares and fractional certificates as they think fit.

SECRECY CLAUSE

230. Secrecy Clause

Every Director, Manager, Auditor, Treasurer, Trustee, Member of a Committee, Officer, servant, Agent, Accountant or other person employed in the business of the Company shall, if so required by the Director, before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions and affairs of the Company with the customers and the state of the accounts with individuals and in matter thereto and shall, by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties, except when required to do so by the Directors or by law or by the designated Stock Exchange or by the person to whom such matters relate and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these Presents contained.

231. No member to enter the premises of the Company without permission

No Member or other person (not being a Director) shall be entitled to visit or inspect any property or premises of the Company without the permission of the Board of Directors or Managing Director or to inquire discovery of or any information respecting any details of the company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of the trade secret, mystery of trade, secret process or any other matter which relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors, it would be inexpedient in the interest of the Company to disclose.

232. Overriding Provisions

In the event of any inconsistency between the Overriding Articles and any other provisions in these Articles, the provisions of the Overriding Articles shall apply. For the purpose of this Article 226, the expression "Overriding Articles" shall mean Articles 14 to16, 66 to 70, 77, 88, 110, 115, 116, 144, 145, 148, 181, 182, 183, 184.

We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of these Articles of Association.
